

Evaluation

The jury will be composed out of international experts in the field of management consultancy as well as of prominent representatives of successful businesses. Each participating country has the right to name up to two members for the jury.

Evaluation criteria for the jury are the following aspects of a project:

Commercial performance

revenue/profit impact, process improvement, productivity increase, effectiveness of organizational changes

Strategic strength

market performance and impact, innovation, development and qualification improvements of the company and its human resources

Quality of consulting/solution creativity of solutions and methods, customer satisfaction, satisfaction of participating partners and their employees, quality of documents, change management and project management

Efficiency

price/performance, cost control, speed of execution, long-term effects, replicability, organization and quality of international cooperation

International

creation and security of jobs, effects on regional and national economy, compliance with development programs, etc.