The answers to all your questions about the PSC

CMC - GLOBAL

The PSC - who are we and where are we from?

Professional Standards Committee

what we do - assist the Board in development and maintenance of professional standards and guidelines that promote excellence in the consulting profession why we do it – to transform into practice the vision of ICMCI to be a leader in the development of management consulting as a profession that drives social and economic success.

how we do it

- Survey clients, donor agencies, consultants
- Monitor ISO and other standards
- Research examples of excellent practice
- Review feedback from member IMCs
- Develop updates and improvements and recommend for Board approval

when we meet – every 2 months by video conference
